etters from the Crimea to May 31st, mention that 000 masons are to be employed in re-building THE STREETS OF LONDON.—The length of all the erent streets in London is 1,750 miles ; the paving them cost £44,000,000, and the yearly cost of ping the pavement in repair is £1,800,000.

The Cholera appears to be showing itself again in Petersburgh. The daily mortality has risen of e from two to three to as many as twenty-one. The mber of deaths that have already taken place in | Will sail for the above ports on FRIDAY, September 12. e present outbreak is three hundred and four. Since the re-establishment of commercial relations tween Great Britain and Russia, the Electric and ternational Telegraph Company have received distches direct from St. Petersburgh, within a second their leaving that capital, the length of wire being out 1700 miles. Out of the one hundred and twenty American oaks irty-five years old, which were planted last year on e Quai des Tuileries, in Paris, eighty-seven are now een and flourishing; the rest (thirty-three) are Prince Woronzoff, whose palace, the finest in St. etersburgh, has just been fitted up for the reception Count Morny, would seem to be a man of enorous wealth. He owns five palaces in Odessa and etersburgh. The rent paid by Count Morny is 10,000 a year.

Each of the seven copies of the treaty of peace latev concluded in Paris, has been richly bound, and sclosed in a box of engraved silver, to which it is astened by gold or silver cords. The national seals ffixed to the several copies are of almost fabulous imensions, being six inches in diameter and three nches thick. Each seal is of a different colored wax from the others.

Five Englishmen lately arrived at Lyons, in an pen boat, direct from London. They travel for pleasure, and propose exploring all the navigable inand waters of France. Four of the party row the boat, while the other steers. The boat is so small hat when they wish to change places they are obligen to land.

The finest private collection in the world of works and freights taken at fair rates. on natural history and various objects connected therewith, was probably that of the late M. Robyns, Messrs, Morgan, Hathaway & Co. of Bruxelles. His Entomological Cabinet was one of the finest in Europe. He was an indefatigable collector, and has been known to pay as high as $400 for a butterfly. The whole collection is about to be sold

By a late decision of the French Government, Professorships of Agriculture are to be founded in all the principal educational establishments in France. The English Court of Exchequer has decided that any part of the city ahead of the mail. it is lawful for a candidate to pay a voter's traveling expenses to the poll.

THE ISTHMUS OF TEHUANTEPEC. -The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce writes to that paper as follows:

"I find that the Mexican Government, dreading tation of Merchandise, Specie, Letters and valuable packages to the formation of a fillibuster association in California all parts of the United States. for the seizure of the Mexican territory in which lies the Tehuantepec isthmus, have made some offer to the Government in relation to that isthmus. Mr. Polk authorized Mr. Trist to offer fifteen millions, in addition to the indemnity for the cession of territory, for the isthmus of Tehuantepec. But the offer was then declined for the alleged reason that an exclusive grant of the same had been made to an English company. They now wish the United States to take that isthmus under their protection, and use it for the common benefit of the commercial world. What consideration, if any, they have asked, is not known. It would be, no doubt, desirable to Mexico, that the United States should receive this grant, as an offset to claims of the United States upon the Mexican Government, which claims are now strongly pressed upon them.

Col. Colt.—An event of some interest to Colonel Samuel Colt, (the famous inventor of the repeating pistol.) as well as to his personal friends, occurred on Thursday. This was nothing less than the marriage of the gallant Colonel. The happy event transpired at the house of the bride, Miss Elizabeth Jarvis, of Middletown, and the ceremony was performed in the Episcopal Church by the Right Reverend Bishop Brownell. Miss Jarvis is the daughter of the Rev. Wm. Jarvis, of Middletown.
